A friend asked me to add him to my buddy list, but I can't find it.
Could someone please tell me where it is?

Nice answer u retard. Oh wait, u r from USA nothing strange....

And so that would be 1 retard responding to another retard....
Oh wait I have an idea, lets not drag the mentally challenged down to your level, lets just say your both asshats, what ever part of the world you call home.

The op asked a simple question that any one just starting out may have had & the first 2 responses they have to see is from a smartass & a bigot.

Thank you Thomas J for giving the info needed by the op. Bill I hope you enjoy the game & continue to ask questions, most are answered by players that are happy to help, with out having to show there wit, or lack there of, at another's expense.

p.s. the ignore list can also be found there with the friend list. Don't know why that just came to mind but there it is. ;)
