Let's hope they give it back before he goes to court, or else.... eh,

umm,

Oh go ahead... he won't have a let to stand on.

The question is, will it stand up under closer scrutiny?

The lawyers are already stumping for him on the TV and radio...

BTW, his prosthetic didn't cost him as much as he thought – he got to keep the arm...

It's a good thing he turned himself in, that way he had a leg up on the police.

When asked, the Police said, "it was easy, he just hopped in".
