

Adult Comix Newsletter for 2/24/08

Source: <http://newsgroups.derkeiler.com/Archive/Rec/rec.arts.anime.marketplace/2008-02/msg00011.html>

- From: Doctor Robo <dr_robob@xxxxxxxxxxx>
 - Date: Sun, 24 Feb 2008 13:15:08 -0800 (PST)
-

Greetings once again and welcome to another edition of "HIPComix Happenings", your best source for news and information on bondage, mind control, catfight, and superheroine peril erotic comics on the web!

This week we have a boatload of new content in our members area, including a brand new story arc from Doctor Robo and FinisterFoul. Those of you who have been following along know all about the sprawling Metrobay Universe that Doc and Fin have been slowly building over the past few years. The fictional city is home to dozens of sexy superheroines and fiendish villains, who constantly find themselves in a variety of erotic situations for your viewing pleasure. HIPComix is home to all of these fantastic characters, and with our huge 14,000+ image archive you can join now and catch up on every single story. You can't beat that deal!

So without further ado, here are this week's updates to HIPComix.com...

From DOCTOR ROBO and FINISTERFOUL:

Okay, so three weeks isn't really much of a break, but working on these stories (and with a talented artist like FinisterFoul) is just too much fun to quit cold turkey. So, His Foulness and I are pleased to introduce our newest Metrobay Universe series: "Grime City Stories"!

So what exactly are Grime City Stories? Well, long story short (literally) they are going to be a series of one, two, or three chapter minicomics which feature a superheroine or two that we have introduced in previous comics and we feel deserve to get a little extra attention all to themselves. We will get to see a little bit of how these characters live in and out of uniform, and how they fare when away from the rest of the Superheroine Squad. The title "Grime City" is taken from the local nickname of Metrobay's crime-ridden south side, where villains like Dr. Twisted and The Boyz have made their homes and the Superheroine Squad faces some of their toughest challenges on a regular basis.

This week we kick off our first Grime City Story with a little piece called "Wireless", which spotlights the superheroine named RollerGrrl as she finds herself in a compromising situation courtesy of none other than the sexy villainess Ginger Monroe! See what happens when Ginger infiltrates RollerGrrl's civilian sanctuary, and how the gorgeous redhead intends to get what she wants from RollerGrrl, no matter the cost! It's all in chapter one of "Wireless