Oh dear. Are we starting to see a pattern here? Do you remember the Dr Who episode where the TomTom umbrella thing in the car was used by aliens and took over.....?

Ooh, a handy place to put this swerve...

May I ask my fellow Whorats not to comment on the final episode as soon as it's shown, without massive spoiler warnings? My TV viewing is all via the pooter these days, and the Doctor doesn't appear until late on Saturday evening, then needs to be downloaded for viewing the next day (the stream on Beeb being pretty erratic). I shall be most grateful for your thoughtfulness MOPsMOBs. :o)
